Description

Products & services designed to help consumers get trim, fit & healthy are definitely recession-proof as evidenced by the fact that Americans spend over $40 Billion annually on diet & health products. The fitness-conscious individuals on this list have taken active steps to lose weight and improve their health by buying diet foods, joining diet & vitamin clubs, researching and ordering products online and responding to email promotions for health & diet-related offers. These responsive consumers are the perfect audience for additional weight loss products, health products, gym club memberships, beauty related offers, travel & vacation, highly promotional offers and much more.
