List Description

The Catholic grandparents on this file have the disposable income to help their children and indulge their grandchildren. Grandparents are known to spoil their grandkids, buying toys, gifts and clothes as well as products and services that invest & support their education. They are also likely to be active at their local church and within their communities volunteering and donating to charitable causes. Reach these responsive seniors for faith based products and services such as gifts, books, movies, music, child and educational related products, investments and insurance as well as for subscriptions, fundraising, travel and much more.
